

What Home For Good Does

Six years working with children in a mission orphanage in the Philippines is why we state with such strong conviction that “Children just don’t want to be orphans.” We’ve discovered there are families in churches everywhere who would love to adopt, but are deterred by the high cost of adoption. That’s why we established the Home For Good Foundation, to bring orphan children into God’s family via the ministry of adoption. Adoption is the best way to evangelize orphan children, and adoption ministry in the local church is the fastest and most effective way to raise funds for adoption, and can raise more support than any foundation will grant!

We accomplish our mission by encouraging, equipping, educating, challenging and assisting anyone interested in orphan ministry and adoption, to start and conduct an autonomous adoption ministry in their own home church.

In the Philippines we provide grants to help Filipino Christian families adopt, and we also sponsor Christian families to love and care for older orphans while helping them gain employable skills to become self supporting.

Home For Good Foundation is incorporated and duly registered as a non-profit organization in the U.S. and the Philippines. To date we have worked with hundreds of people, many of whom have started adoption ministries in churches all across the U.S., and we have established a similar work in the Philippines. We would love to help you start a ministry in your church, or in any another country where God may be calling you.

Our on-line store helps fund Home For Good ministries, which enables us to provide more free services and resources for churches and adoptive families. Visit www.homeforgoodfinds.org and shop to support adoption.

What We Do Not Do

- We do not seek support from local churches to fund Home For Good ministries.
- We are not attempting to establish branches of our ministry in any local church.
- We are not an adoption agency, and do not match families with children
- We do not operate an orphanage, a foster home or an adoption agency.

We are advocates for orphan children and adopting families within the body of Christ, His church.
